

left to pay their said several Forfeitures, and that you can find no sufficient Distress whereon to levy the same, that then you the Constables, or one of you, shall commit every such Offender or Offenders (refusing or neglecting to pay the said sum or Forfeiture, and not having sufficient whereon to be distrained for the same) to the Stocks, there to remain by the space of four hours. And this shall be your sufficient Warrant herein. Dated, &c.

But before the Justice of Peace shall grant these two last Warrants, or the like, he shall do well first to send for the Offenders, and to examine them of the Offence, &c. See hic antea.

A Warrant to convene all Victuallers, &c. to put in Sureties for observing Fish-days, according to the Proclamation.

To the High-Constables of the Hundred of Radfield, and to either of them.

THese are in the Kings Majesties name to command you to warn all the Inn-holders, Taverners, Cooks, Ale-house-keepers, Butchers, and other Victuallers whatsoever within your Hundred, personally to appear before us at Linton upon Tuesday, being the twentieth day of this instant February, at the sign of the Griffin there: and to bring with them Sureties that shall enter into Bond with them, to his Majesties use, for the due observation of the Orders lately published for the restraint of killing, dressing and eating of Flesh in Lent, or upon Fish-days, according to his Majesties Proclamation in that behalf; and that you, or one of you, be then and there with us, to deliver us a note in writing of the names, Surnames, and dwelling-places of every of them, and of all other that victual without Licence within your Hundred, as you will answer the contrary at your peril. Dated at West Wrating the first day of February, &c.

Against Ale-house keepers.

ALso a Warrant (like unto the last but one) may be made to levy the Forfeiture of Inn-keepers or Ale-house-keepers, for suffering Townsmen or others to continue drinking in their house, or for selling less than one quart of their best Beer or Ale for 1 d. saving that the Distress taken of such Inn-keepers and Ale-house-keepers is not to be sold till after six days; and then for default of satisfaction, the same are presently to be appraised and sold, and therefore such Warrant must herein be made accordingly. See 1 Jac. cap. 9. P. 7, 8.

To levy Forfeiture for not keeping the Assize, &c.

Thomas Tirrel Esquire, one of the Kings Majesties Justices, &c. Forasmuch as it hath been duly proved before me (according to the Statute in such case provided) that G. W. of your said Town, Ale-house-keeper, hath lately uttered or sold in his house) less than one full Ale-quart of the best Beer for one penny, contrary to the form of the same Statute: These are therefore in his Majesties name to charge and command you, forthwith to levy, by distress of the Goods of the said G. W. the sum of twenty shillings, the same to be bestowed and employed by you to the use of the Poor of your Parish: and if the said G. W. with-
